Chesapeake Bay Wine Festival Donates Almost $25,000 To Local Charities

Kent Island, Maryland – The second annual Chesapeake Bay Wine Festival, held May 30-31 2009 raised almost $25,000 for local charities. Pictured are members of Inspired Events, the company who planned and promoted the event along with representatives of the local charities, which were the recipients of the donations for 2009. Standing along the back row from left to right are Kimberly Kratovil and Becky Groff, both with Inspired Events, Linda Kohler from the Foundation for Community Partnerships, Janice Sidun from the Kent Island Elementary School Relay for Life Team, Heather Hall from Hospice Queen Annes and Holly Scott from Inspired Events. In the front row are Mason Tate, age 7, and Max Tate, age 8, representing Boy Scout troop 496. The event also raised money for The Bayside Elementary School Relay for Life Team and the Maryland Wineries Association.

The date for next year's Chesapeake Bay Wine Festival is set for June 5-6, 2010. For more information about the Chesapeake Bay Wine Festival, contact Inspired Events at (410) 200-6127, or check us out on the web at www.ChesapeakeBayWineFest.com.
